George と Amanda の会話を読み、各問に答えなさい。

George is telling Amanda about his holiday.

Amanda : Was it a long holiday, George?

George : No, only a week.

Amanda : 7 days only! I think most people take 14 days' vacation.

George : Yes, but it was a good holiday.

Amanda : Where did you go?

George : I went to Spain. As you know, I'm a big fan of cycling and the ※Tour de France, and love watching it on TV.

Amanda : George, but you went to Spain.

George : Well, I also like the Spanish tour. It's called La Vuelta, and it's much easier for me to see that race. The mountains in Spain are amazing, so it was nice to watch the cycling and be in the countryside, too.

Amanda : Did you drive to the top of the mountain to get a good view?

George : No, the roads were closed, so we had to leave my car and walk. I started at 10 a.m. to walk up the 7 kilometers to the top of the mountain, and it took me 2 hours.

Amanda : That sounds difficult.

George : Not really. It was slow walking but not too difficult. The views were unbelievable!

Amanda : So, was that the best day of the holiday for you?

George : I think so. As I said, the mountains were great, and I saw some top ※cyclists.

Amanda : Were you lucky with the weather all the day?

George : Well, it was strange. The cyclists passed, and it began to rain suddenly. We had to walk down the mountain in the rain.

Amanda : Did you have ※extra clothes?

George : I had them in a bag, but the bag and the clothes got wet. But it wasn't cold. It was really warm, so that was fine.

Amanda: Now, there wasn't a hotel, was there, George?

George : No, I was camping. However, I drove back to the ※campsite and it was dry: there had been no rain there at all. So we had hot showers and changed into dry clothes. So it was the best day of the holiday for me. And what about you, Amanda?

Amanda : The favorite part of my holiday was the day I went to the beach. I just love being by the sea. Next year, can we have a seaside holiday?

George : Sounds great!

Murphy is a 31-year-old *male *bald eagle. He lives at the World Bird *Sanctuary in Valley Park, Missouri. In early March 2023, Murphy started sitting all day on a *nest he made. This is normal for male bald eagles. They help keep the egg warm before *hatching. But (A) { ① Murphy's / ② egg / ③ there / ④ was / ⑤ no / ⑥ in } nest. He was sitting on a rock!

Murphy *protected his rock egg. He started to get very angry if other bald eagles came close to the nest. The sanctuary staff were worried that the birds would fight. They took Murphy to a different area.

That week, bird *rescuers brought an *eaglet to the sanctuary. It had fallen out of its nest during a storm. The sanctuary staff hoped another eagle would *raise the baby bird, not a human, and the baby bird could get ready to leave the sanctuary more easily. They chose Murphy because he was looking after his rock egg.

The staff put the eaglet in a cage inside Murphy's area. They also took Murphy's rock away. Murphy *seemed to like the baby bird. So, (B) it was put out of the cage a few days later.

Then, the staff gave Murphy and the eaglet some fish to eat. When they returned, they found that Murphy had given the eaglet some of his fish. (C) Murphy { ① like / ② a / ③ acting / ④ good / ⑤ was / ⑥ father }. He was taking care of the baby!

The staff will now teach the eaglet to fly. If the baby bird does well, it will be *released. The sanctuary staff says Murphy will be fine without the eaglet. Adult eagles release their babies when they are ready.

次の英文を読み、各問に答えなさい。

What is your favorite color — bright red, pastel pink or emerald green? Some of you may like bright colors and others may like ( 1 ) colors. If you don't have a favorite color, then, look at your *belongings: T-shirts, sneakers, bags or *stationary. Have you chosen things of similar colors? That is probably your favorite color.

Why do you like this color? It may be the color of your favorite baseball team's uniform or your favorite singer's clothes. It may also be the color that *reminds you of your favorite season, such as ( 2 ). We like colors for different reasons.

Colors have many “*associations”: they make us think of many different things. Let's think about these associations!

People around the world often have similar associations with a color. For example, light blue usually reminds us of the sky or water. Colors may also be *commonly *associated with *values. Gold, silver and bronze are widely *linked to best, second-best and third-best. Most people can understand “He went red with *anger,” because red has an association ( 3 ) many of us share.

However, color associations may be different in different cultures or times. For example, most of us now associate green with good things such as “peace.” But, for Europeans in *the Middle Ages, green had ( 4 ) associations. Demons and other *evil things are often painted green in old European pictures.

Research shows that colors affect our feelings. What do you feel when you see red or yellow? In fact, what most people feel when they see red is “excited,” and when they see yellow, “cheerful.”

This power of colors to affect our feelings is used ( 5 ) many ways. For instance, do you know the *jail in the U.S? The walls and doors are painted pink. It helps *calm *prisoners down and puts them in a good mood. Or how about a Japanese “bento.” Orange can make us hungry, and bright green makes us feel fresh.

Colors have many associations, and can change our feelings. Now, think about your favorite color again. What does it mean to you?
